

House Rules for Residents of the Dietrich Bonhoeffer House (Student Residence Hall of the ESG Bonn)

Preamble

The Dietrich Bonhoeffer House is the Student Residence Hall of the ESG Bonn which in turn is sponsored by The Evangelical Church in the Rhineland (EKiR). The residence hall is open to dedicated students of all religions and cultures looking to contribute to the culture of coexistence and international understanding within the house. The foundation of this document is the General Lease Agreement for Student Accommodations of The Evangelical Church in the Rhineland

§ 1

It is the responsibility of all residents to ensure the main doors of their respective apartments are closed. All residents are also to make sure that the main house doors are closed between the hours of 10 pm and 7 am.

The door to the bicycle cellar must always remain locked.

It is in best interest to lock the door of your room whenever you leave the residence hall.

§ 2

Disturbing levels of noise are not permitted from the hours of 10 pm to 7 am. Similarly, residents should always be conscious to not disturb other residents and neighbors with excessive noise.

§ 3

All furnishings are to be properly and gently handled. Any damages are to be promptly reported in writing. The provided furnishings may not be removed from the rooms. Exceptions may be made to this rule, but only upon the submission of a written request.

§ 4

All residents are obligated to participate in the cleaning of the common rooms of their apartment (eg. Kitchen, bathroom, and corridor). More specific rules may be put in place by each apartment.

§ 5

Students enrolled in local institutions of higher education are eligible to live in the DBH. In familial situations it is sufficient for only one of the partners to be an enrolled student, according to the General Lease Agreement. Such families must however inform the management of their income(s).

§ 6

The primary tenancy contract is for a period of 4 semesters.
The tenancy contract can be extended upon application. The scheme is as follows: 2 applications for two semester extensions and 2 applications for one semester extensions.
The maximum period of tenancy is 10 semesters.

For students with children in family housing other deadlines apply: after 4 semesters they may apply for a lease extension of 2-4 semesters. They may additionally apply for an extension of an additional 2 semesters. The maximum period of tenancy for students with children is 12 semesters.

In the case of students moving out of the student residence and into the family house after the birth of a child the following rules apply: the remaining periods of tenancy of the parents will be averaged, or in the case of a single parent the remaining period of tenancy will be halved. If the remaining period of tenancy is an uneven number of semesters it should be rounded up. The minimum length of tenancy is 4 semesters.

Only in exception personal or social situations will exceptions to these regulations be made. Only one additional semester may be petitioned.

The Senior Council will recommend students to the House Management Team who will decide who will be granted contract extensions. The most important criteria for contract extensions being activity within the house and/or ESG.

The termination of a lease according to the General Lease Agreement shall occur with two months' notice at the end of any given semester (30.09/31.03). Exceptions shall be only be made with reasonable justification and an application to the House Management Team. A replacement Tennent must be provided.

§ 7

The distribution of available rooms to new tenants is determined by the administration on behalf of the House Management Team.

During the tenancy period it is possible to move rooms within the house one time. The allocation of the room is determined by the Senior Counsel in agreement with the House Management Team. Special situations (eg: exmatriculation) will be determined by the Senior Council. Moving rooms within the house results in additional work for the administrators of the house and is therefore associated with a cost of 30 €.

§ 8

The subletting of rooms to third parties (paid or unpaid) is only allowed with written approval from the House Management Team. The involved persons may be asked to present themselves to the House Management Team. Any third party must be formally introduced to their flat mates.

§ 9

Guests must abide by the House Rules and Regulations. Guests that stay for more than one night must be introduced to the other residents of the apartment. If the guest(s) are to stay for more than one week the other residents of the apartment and the administration must agree. Official approval from the administration will be given after both sides have had a chance to present their cases. The administration has the ability to recall its approval at any point. Any approved visitors are obliged to contribute 2,50 € as of the second week as to cover ancillary costs.

§ 10

Parking for motor vehicles will not be provided by the DBH. The parking spaces on the DBH grounds may not be used.

§ 11
