

Regulations and Parliamentary Procedure of the Dietrich Bonhoeffer House (Student Residence Hall of the ESG Bonn)

Preamble

The Protestant Student Residence Hall Dietrich Bonhoeffer House (DBH), Venusbergweg 4, 53115 Bonn (Buildings: Venusbergweg 4, Venusbergweg 6, Königstr. 88, Poppelsdorfer Allee 77, Poppelsdorfer Allee 75) is a dependent establishment of The Evangelical Church in the Rhineland. It is a part of the Evangelical Student Congregation of Bonn (ESG).

The DBH is a place where students of different religious and cultural identities live together. It offers space for intercultural dialog and should be conducive to integration. The ESG supports coexistence through its activities and offers. It is expected that the residents actively help shape the community and be open-minded to the work of the ESG.

Striving for ecological utilization of resources belongs to the profile of the student residences of The Evangelical Church in the Rhineland. Careful attention to the use of energy and water are of great value.

1. The Curatorium

The Curatorium of the DBH is responsible for the administration of the assets of The Evangelical Church in the Rhineland in accordance with all applicable regulations.

1.1 Structure

The Curatorium is comprised of seven representative members and four non-representative members. The representative members, the chairperson, and the vice-chairperson shall be elected to duty for a term of four years upon recommendation by the Curatorium on behalf of The Evangelical Church in the Rhineland.

The following shall be represented in the Curatorium:

- j) Increasing contact with the ESG locally

The tasks under the letters e) and f) may be fully or partially delegated by the Curatorium to student lead committees.

1.3 Sittings

The sittings of the Curatorium shall take place as necessary, but no less than once a semester. The Chairperson shall invite the members of the Curatorium in writing with a copy of the intended agenda at least 10 days beforehand. If 5 members or the Department VI.3 of the Regional Church Office request for a meeting of the Curatorium, then the Chairperson shall convene a meeting. The Curatorium shall have a quorum when 4 Voting and 2 non-voting members are present.

2. The House Management Team

The responsibility of independent direction of the residence hall is transferred to the House Management Team by this regulation. The House Management Team is accountable to the Curatorium.

2.1 Composition

The House Management Team is comprised of:

- a) The leader of the house
- b) Two representatives elected at the House General Assembly, or alternatively through the Senior Council. One representative should be a student from a foreign country.

The facility manager, the administrator, other responsible employees, and the senior council chairperson or his/her deputy participate in an advisory capacity.

2.2 Sittings

The House Management Team meets regularly: during the semester approximately every two weeks. The meetings are open to the public as long as no personal questions are being considered or The House Management Team decides otherwise. The House Management Team will have a quorum when at least two of the voting members are present.

A student member of the home administration regularly presents the results of the meetings to the senior council

2.3 Tasks

The following are the assigned tasks of the House Management Team

- a) The distribution and use of the DBH's annual budget in accordance with the decisions and directives of the Curatorium
- b) Proposals and the codetermination of the upkeep of the buildings and facilities (including constructional changes and new building projects).
- c) Proposals regarding the House Rules and Regulations and the House Rules for Residents
- d) Approval and termination of lease agreements
- e) Proposals to the leader of the house concerning the hiring or firing of house staff
- f) Decisions regarding complains from or against residents and guests when it cannot be settled by itself.
- g) Upkeep of order within the house
- h) Distribution of rooms to new residents

2.4 Selection of new residents

The House Management Team will make use of a selection committee in the selection of new residents. This committee will be comprised of The House Management Team as well as four other residents chosen at the House General Meeting or alternatively through the Senior Council. Should there be applicants for the Family House a representative family may also take part in the deliberations. Application to live in the residence hall happens through an application form, which will be drawn up by the Selection Committee. The Selection Committee shall have a quorum when at least 4 voting members are present.

During selections it should be kept in mind that:

- The percentage of residents who are from foreign countries should be between 30 and 40%
- There should be an equal representation of women and men
- Social and communicative aspects should be considered

If a room becomes available during the semester a reserve list should be made

3. The House Self-Administration

The Residence Hall of the DBH is self-administrative. It governs special concerns of the house residents and represents their interests in relation to those of the House Management Teams and the House Holders.

The members of the House Self-Administration are:

- a) The House General Meeting
- b) The Senior Council

3.1 The House General Meeting
